I. CONFERENCE ROLL AND RECORD

IMPORTANT NOTICE—In this Conference Roll and Record the following abbreviations are used: Pr. for Probationer; E. for Effective; Sn. for Supernumary; Rt. for Retired; Cred. for Admitted on Credentials.

'Non-Annuity Years' include (1) all years "On Trial" in excess of two; (2) Years Withdrawn; (3) Years Located; (4) Years Supernumary; (5) Years Retired. In the case of Retired Members, the Non-Annuity Years are those charged at the time of Retirement. To find the year of retirement, add to the year of "Admission on Trial" the sum of the Annuity and Non-Annuity Years.

"Annuity Years" are those for which annuity can be allowed by the Conference Board of Stewards. These include the years in the "Effective Relation", which is the number of years from the time of "Admission in Full" to the time of death or final retirement less any "Non-Annuity Years." To this, two of the years spent "On Trial" are added to make the "Annuity Years." In the case of persons who come to our Conference by transfer who were admitted in full in a Spring Conference, there may sometimes be allowed an extra "Annuity Year" for the extra half year. Such cases are indicated by a "over the year of admission."

Years "Preached in Other Churches" cannot be counted as "Annuity Years," although due consideration will be given this fact by the Board in the administering of the Necessitous Funds.

Every member of the Conference is urged to examine his record, and should there be any error, write the secretary.

IX. REPORTS

DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Bishop Leonard and Members of the United Sessions:

Bishop Leonard: The West Virginia Annual Conference is delighted to have the opportunity to welcome your return to the Pittsburgh Area for another quadrennium. Your fairness, your courteous treatment of all, your sympathy for and assistance to the flood victims last spring, your evangelistic spirit along with your unusual administrative ability have won all our hearts. We pledge you our loyalty and best endeavor in helping you to carry forward your Area and Conference programs for the ensuing quadrennium.

Membership. Indications point to a modest gain. Many good revivals with a goodly number of conversions, reclamations and accessions have been reported. A very successful Preaching Mission was held by Bishop Leonard in the Fourth Street Church in Wheeling, the Wheeling Churches cooperating.

World Service. Probably there will be a small gain in most of the districts in the World Service giving, with perhaps a decrease in Wheeling District due to the devastative flood in that section.

New Buildings. On Buckhannon District, three old buildings have been converted into new churches. Two new churches were dedicated in Huntington District, one on the New Hope Circuit, the other, Beverly Hills, Huntington—a church gothic in style and modern in all of its appointments. In Charleston District a new parsonage was built at the Wesley Church in Charleston. In Morgantown District, a new parsonage was built on the Sabra charge. A new church was completed at Oakland, Md., and dedicated on Palm Sunday. This church is also of gothic architecture and provides adequate facilities for educational, social and recreational life. The sanctuary is said to be one of the most beautiful in the Conference. St. Andrews Church, Parkersburg, bought a fine new parsonage, located near the church.

Christian Education. Wesleyan College had its largest enrollment last year and a still larger enrollment is expected for 1936-37. Good progress has been made at the Wesley Foundation, under the direction of James P. Hutchinson. The work of Religious Education has gone forward under the direction of Dr. and Mrs. A. H. Rapking. More Daily Vacation Bible Schools, and Teacher Training Schools, and credits given than in any previous year. The Pittsburgh Area Training School was pronounced the best ever held, with S. Charles Jones, Dean, J. E. Hanifan, chairman, and A. F. Shomo, registrar of the Board of Ministerial Training of our Conference. The Epworth League Summer Institute held at Buckhannon was well attended, with the quality of work equal to any in the past.

Comments and recommendations. There are some reasons why this report does not register all the gains for the kingdom that we all might wish. First, too many one year pastorates. Forty percent of pastors served new appointments this year. We must have more permanent leadership in the churches. Second, Limited methods of procedure on the part of all too many pastors. The need is for a greater evangelistic passion, and yet we are convinced that there must be evangelism plus. We approve heartily the religious education method but are convinced that there must be religious education plus. We believe firmly that the Gospel of Christ has a social implication as well as an individual imperative, but to try to establish the kingdom of God by a wholesale economic movement is to proceed, we believe, not according to the divine formula. The need is for a more symmetrical plan of Christian endeavor than some ministers and churches now have. For these reasons the report is no better, but we would not be true to our trust if we did not look at the other side of the picture and give some reasons why it is so good. First, Bishop Leonard, whose wise, inspiring and evangelistic leadership has been felt to the remotest bounds of the Conference. Second, The District Superintendents have given conscientious supervision to the work of the Church. Third, The Pastors constitute the chief factor for the progress in the work of the Kingdom. Fourth, Great credit should be given to the faithful, loyal laymen who are to be found in our Churches.

Three Recommendations. First, To the pulpit we suggest a little more heat. We plead for what Thomas Chalmers called: "The transforming power of a new Affection," and represented in St. Paul's words, "Fervent in spirit," and as experienced in the heart-warming experience of John Wesley on May 24, 1738. Second, We recommend that the pew give a little more assistance to the pulpit. The membership organized to maintain the spiritual vigor of the church and to increase its membership by lay evangelism. Third, we recommend for both pulpit and pew, faith for doubt and optimism for pessimism. There is a "victory that hath overcome the world, even our faith." The word is to advance and not retreat. Our Commander says: "Turn your faces and follow me and I will make you fishers of men and we will retake all that we have lost and in addition we will conquer new territory until the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our Father in heaven."

PERMANENT TRUST FUND

Report of the Secretary - Treasurer

In submitting this my first report to the West Virginia Annual Conference, I wish to pay tribute to the loyalty of the pastors to this Fund, and the cooperation they have manifest as the Secretary-Treasurer has gone over the Conference representing the cause of the retired minister, widow and orphan of ministers.

The work has been strenuous, first, due to the fact that my appointment to this position one year ago made me the successor of a man whose labors were always strenuous in the cause of the Master; second, because I was early able to sense the responsibility of placing the cause of the veteran minister before as large a number of congregations, group gatherings and individuals as seemed possible for one man to reach.

Knowing the physical impossibility of presenting this cause in all the churches of the Conference, I organized the Conference into groups, with a chairman over each group, with the plan for an exchange of pastors, the cause presented and an offering taken for the Permanent Fund. This plan has proven most effective where worked, and it has been worked to some extent in most of groups. The same plan will be carried on, with some modifications, and with a closer supervision on the part of the Secretary during the coming year.

No large amounts have been received from individual contributors, $230 being the largest sum received from such sources, but there have been a large number of smaller givers, and this emphasizes the interest on the part of a large number of persons, though their ability to give is limited.

The number and organization in which we have investments will be shown in the report of the Central Banking and Trust Company of Charleston, the custodian of the invested funds, also the amount of interest these investments have yielded this Conference year.

Two years ago, in 1934, our investments yielded the sum of $5,499. In 1935 the sum of $7,090. This year, 1936, the sum of $6993.20, so that we find the investments are yielding a substantial increase over past years.

We have made no change in the estimated valuations on the properties coming to the Permanent Fund through the Jamisson estate in Fairmont. But if these properties should be offered for sale the market value would not be as high as listed in the Conference Minutes of 1934. (See report on page 325 Minutes.)

I do not regard this as an opportune time to launch a campaign for a large endowment, as much as a large endowment is needed, but I do favor an aggressive campaign of education, solicitation and enlistment of all our pastors in the determination to secure an offering from each pastoral charge in the Conference. That the Secretary be charged with the responsibility of placing before pastors and churches this necessity. Then demand that the Conference order of one per cent of pastor's cash salary be paid by all our pastors; that pro-rating be carried out by each church. Then the retired minister will come into that which the Conference promised him at the beginning of his ministry, an adequate support as he approaches life's setting sun. The widow likewise shall receive such support as her needs demand, and the orphan child of dependent age shall understand that a great church has kept faith with parents and children.

To carry these objectives into effect I invite the confidence and solicit the cooperation of every member of the West Virginia Annual Conference.

Respectfully submitted,
S. B. HART (Signed)
Executive Secretary-Treasurer.

REPORT OF PRO-RATING COMMITTEE

Your committee on pro-rating has not only met as a committee but we have met such men of the conference whose charges did not pro-rate as appeared before us. The conference may be interested to know that only about one-fifth of the men whose charges did not pro-rate the items of ministerial support, appeared before the committee.

We would like to remind the conference again that pro-rating the items of ministerial support is the established law of the church. It is a self evident fact that disregard for the laws of the church is an indication of disloyalty. Disloyalty to the church, as in the state, leads to an inevitable breakdown, chaos and confusion are bound to be the result.

We are forced to report to you that more charges failed to pro-rate this year than last year. We make this statement with sincere regret. One hundred and two charges of the West Virginia Conference have failed to obey this law of the church. This indicates either complete indifference to the law or a definite and clear-cut refusal to abide by it.

After giving this matter careful consideration we wish to recommend: First, that a campaign of education with reference to pro-rating the items of ministerial support by each District Superintendent—be conducted during the Conference year. This committee is furnishing to each District Superintendent a list of the non-co-operating charges of his district. We would urge that each District Superintendent lay special emphasis in the Quarterly Conference of these charges on compliance with the law of the church.

Second, that the pastor consider himself as definitely responsible for the way in which his charge observes this law of the church. The pastor is the key man and the failure of any given charge is considered as his failure. Third, that pastors in charges where the support comes in whole or in part from sources or institutions outside the membership or constituency are under obligation to consider such support as subject to the law of pro-rating. We would remind them that they would not have been sent to these charges had they not been Methodist preachers.

Tributes

A. M. HAMMOND

A. M. Hammond was born May 29, 1858, in Belmont County, Ohio, and died April 26, 1935, at his home on Preston Road, Morgantown, West Virginia. Funeral services were held on the following Monday afternoon, in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, of Morgantown, with the Rev. Dr. Sheridan W. Bell, of Buckhannon, and the Rev. Dr. Joseph C. Hoffman, of Morgantown, officiating. Interment was made in East Oak Grove Cemetery at Morgantown.

Mr. Hammond, the son of Thomas B. and Sarah Danford Hammond, had been ill for some eighteen months, but endured his great suffering with patience and sublime trust in his Savior, believing that He doeth all things well. On April 24, 1885, Mr. Hammond was married to Sarah Elizabeth Moore, who ministered to him in the long months of pain, and who survives to mourn his loss. Also surviving are three brothers, Samuel D. Hammond, of Chicago, Ill., J. A. Hammond and W. D. Hammond, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Mr. Hammond was ordained a Deacon in 1888, at Sedalia, Mo., and an Elder in 1891. He was ordained to the Methodist Episcopal Ministry in the St. Louis Conference, serving five charges there before coming East. In the West Virginia Conference, he served at Blacksville, Masontown, Reedsville, Adamston, Shinnston, Broad Oaks, Arnettsville, Wana, and spent one year on the Morgantown Circuit. He also served charges in the Southern Methodist Church on the Pleasant Ridge Circuit, St. Mary's Circuit, Reedy, Ripley, Fairview, and Willamstown.

Mr. Hammond was active in the erection of churches and parsonages, and assisted in the construction of churches in Wetzel County on the Huff Ridge, at Masontown, Reedsville, Shinnston, Wilsonburg, and Stealey Heights. The first church he built was in Carl Junction, Mo., where his mother's funeral was held and where she lies buried in the church-yard. His last work resulted in the establishment of a church at East Clarksburg, the Hammond Church, dedicated to him in honor of his tireless efforts.

Mr. Hammond's entire life was spent in the service of his Master, and when earthly strength was spent, he gladly answered the welcome summons to come up higher and be with Him. "Well done, thou good and faithful servant. Enter into the Joy of Thy Lord."

CHARLES WESLEY BALL

Charles Wesley Ball was born in Loudoun County, Virginia, February 28, 1848. His parents were staunch Methodists and passed this heritage to their children, for two of their sons became Methodist ministers, Rev. Samuel Asbury and the subject of this memoir. Both of them were honored and respected members of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church; which Conference ceased to function as such in 1906, its territory having been distributed to its adjacent conferences, the Baltimore, West Virginia, Wilmington and the Holston.

Brother Ball had meager opportunities and facilities for an education, being limited to the public schools of his county and these schools were in their formative period, and, furthermore, severely aggravated by Civil War conditions. He, nevertheless, was a diligent reader and became a clear thinker and an able expounder of the Word. He was somewhat the type of the "old camp meeting" preacher and at times swayed the people by the might of his message.

He became a Christian at nineteen and within a year or so was made Sunday School superintendent and licensed as a local preacher. He was admitted on Trial in the Virginia Conference, Spring of 1873, ordained Deacon under the Missionary Rule, 1874, by Bishop Scott, and as an Elder, 1878, by Bishop Andrews; both ordinations taking place in Trinity Church, Alexandria, Virginia. He served in the effective relation of the Conference for twenty-five years, serving such charges as Berryville, Herndon, Vienna, Arlington, Ronceverte, and four years on the Roanoke District as Presiding Elder. He also served several years as a Supply in the bounds of the Baltimore Conference. He was Supernumerary for three years and retired for disability in 1902.

Brother Ball never asked at the hands of the Bishop for any appointment but went without a murmur to any charge given him, and some of them were large and difficult. He gave of the full measure of his strength and every such charge was bettered for his services. "He endured as seeing Him who was invisible." He was also greatly cheered and sustained by the fidelity of his wife who shared all his joys and triumphs, and as well and cheerfully, his hardships. His wife was Rachael E. Jackson, of Clark County, Virginia. Their marriage occurred May 15, 1877. To this union were born seven children, all of whom survive with their mother. He leaves also eighteen grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

He slipped away quietly and peacefully, May 7, 1936, at Hedgesville, West Virginia. His funeral service was conducted by his pastor, Rev. W. J. Baker and Rev. William Pierpoint, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Martinsburg, West Virginia.

Rightly appraised by his ministerial brethern and a host of laymen as well as just, upright, honest, kind, cheerful and faithful, he has gone to lay his troubles at the Master's feet and to be with the great and good of the ages as "Sons unto Glory."

(Written by Ulysses S. A. Heavener, Baltimore Conference and formerly a fellow member of the Virginia Conference.)

JESSE R. JONES

Jesse R. Jones was born July 29, 1873 and died March 21, 1936. He took up his life's work as a minister at an early age and devoted his whole life to the work. He was especially devoted to the work of the young people in the various departments of the Church. He was a lover of peace and a friend of the poor.

The last Charge that he served was Smithburg. On this work his fast declining health made it necessary for him to retire from active service.

At the time of his death he was living at Salem, West Virginia. He died rejoicing in the hope beyond and often made the remark, His work here was finished.

DAVID H. PERKINS

David H. Perkins was born March 6, 1872. He died at Glendale Hospital, August 16, 1936; he had been admitted for treatment of injuries sustained in an automobile accident in which his daughter, Mrs. Alma O'Neal and her son John Richard, Jr., were killed. He was united in marriage to Miss Mary E. McClung on November 28, 1901. The widow survives him, as do also all the children except Mrs. O'Neal.

Brother Perkins was educated in the public schools and received a Bachelor of Science Degree from Summersville Normal School in 1898. He engaged in teaching in the public schools of West Virginia for nine years before entering the ministry in 1903.

He served the following charges:— Birch River, Clay, Winona, Kincaid, Meadowdale, Monongalia, Newburg, Bristol, Bayard and Marshall. He retired in 1929 because of ill health.

Brother Perkins was buried from Mt. Olivet Church near Sherard. Services were conducted by Brothers T. E. Shea, S. C. Dotson, W. W. Beckley, V. A. Nanna, G. D. Watts and Herold Grandstaff; the eulogy was delivered by Brother Dotson.

Brother Perkins was a lover of people, a good pastor, a faithful worker, and he was tireless in his Christian endeavors. He made for himself many friends wherever he went.

EUGENE WEAVER

Eugene Weaver was born at Tanner in Gilmer County, August 29, 1863, and died at Buckhannon, August 8, 1936, following a two month's illness.

He attended Glenville State Normal School and West Virginia Wesleyan Seminary. He taught school for several years and then joined the Annual Conference. He was in active ministerial work for twenty-five years, retiring because of ill health in 1920. He then moved to Buckhannon where he resided with his family at 78 College Avenue.

He served churches in the following places:

Salisbury, Penna.; Grantsville, Maryland; Charleston, Parsons, Philippi, Richwood, Thomas, Davis and Mt. Clare, West Virginia.

Brother Weaver married Jennie Turner of Frostburg, Maryland, November 8, 1900. There are two children, Mr. Thomas Weaver and Miss Sara Weaver of Buckhannon. There are four grandchildren, James Eugene, Jennie Belle, Robert and Tommy, children of Thomas Weaver. There are also brothers, Ben F. Weaver of Parkersburg, David E. Weaver of Columbus, Ohio, William F. Weaver of Tanner, W. Va., Wilson Weaver of Grantsville, W. Va., S. C. Weaver of Candler, North Carolina.

Funeral services were conducted at the home in Buckhannon on August 10 with Sheridan Watson Bell in charge. He was assisted in the services by Brother Frank E. Townsend and Brother Jacob Elbert Wells.

AGNES KIRK (MASON) VANSICKLE

Funeral services for Agnes Kirk Mason VanSickle, wife of Rev. Joseph VanSickle, of Clarksburg, W. Va., were held in the Broad Oaks Methodist Episcopal church, Sunday afternoon, Nov. 3, 1935, by Revs. Homer E. Wark, W. R. Eskew, and J. D. Engle. On Monday, Nov. 4th the body was taken to the Blooming Rose Methodist Episcopal church at Friendsville, Md., where short services were held by the above named ministers and Rev. R. L. Maness, pastor of the church. The body was laid to rest in the Blooming Rose Cemetery at Friendsville, Md.

Mrs. VanSickle was born at Frostburg, Md., June 6, 1866, and departed this life at her home in Clarksburg, W. Va., Nov. 1, 1935, after a long illness. She was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Mason, who were lifelong Christians and members of the methodist Episcopal church. Mr. Mason was a lay delgate to the General Conference in his day.

She was united in marriage to the Rev. Joseph VanSickle, Dec. 24, 1905.

They had an adopted daughter, Ruth VanSickle, now Mrs. Claude Rice of Wilsonburg.

Mrs. VanSickle confessed faith in Christ and united with the Methodist Episcopal church in early youth.

As a young woman she did intensive missionary work, organizing Sunday schools in the coal fields and elsewhere. Several of these organizations became permanent and Methodist Episcopal churches now stand as memorials of his faithful work.

In the fall of 1908 Mr. VanSickle said he would not be able to enter the ministry. Mrs. VanSickle said: "Go on. You can succeed. We will sacrifice together. There will be a way." Such was her spirit and faith in service during the twenty-seven years she served as a parsonage wife. She was a real companion, and a faithful servant of the community, stirring up the gift of God through her unfeigned faith in Christ, her Lord.

She sacrificed the comforts of home to live in two or three small rooms, under crowded conditions, while new churches and parsonages were being built. But the new parsonage was left for another, and she went to help her husband collect the debt and build anew. She heard a voice in her soul that sang:

"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul,
As the swift seasons roll!
Leave thy low-vaulted past!
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea!"

MARY ELIZABETH (CRAWFORD) HEASTON

Mary Elizabeth Crawford was born at Conotton, Ohio, November 24, 1854, the daughter of John Crawford and Sarah Hunt Crawford. She was educated at the Conotton school and at Scio College. At Conotton she was married to Mr. Heaston. He died in May, 1884,

After Mr. Heaston's death she lived in Conotton and then went to Pittsburgh when her children were old enough to enter business. About twenty years ago, however, she returned to Ohio and during the past eight years had made her home with Ruth Evans Brush at Zanesville.

Mrs. Heaston was a calm and sweet person, never complaining and doing cheerfully everything that needed to be done.

DEXTER BENNETT ORR

Dexter Bennett Orr was born at Wallace, October 17, 1860, and died at Mountain Lake Park, June 29, 1936. His father was Matthew Johnson Orr and his mother was Sara Jane McGee Orr. His wife was the daughter of Eugenius Wolfe and Rachel Bishoff Wolfe.

There were several children in the family,—Foster Batelle Orr (deceased), Eula Floy Orr Skidmore, Alpha Annice Orr Little, Ruth Page Orr Arnett, Lelia Orr Mackey, Ruby Buhl Orr Aronhalt, Wilma Florence Orr Rose and Willard Bennett Orr.

Charges served included:—Davis, Cranesville, Friendsville, Md., Salem, Malden, Brandonville, Guyandotte, Mt. Clair, Grafton, Spice Run, Gormanania, Wallace, Holly Grove, and Davis (second time).

Brother Orr attended the Mountain Lake Camp Meeting last summer and at the Monday morning service gave a testimony in the singing of a song that he had written, or words to an old tune. At the close of this remarkable testimony he faltered, and was dead.

A funeral service was held at the Church at Wallace on Thursday, July 2, with burial in the old family cemetery there. Several ministers took part in the Service:—Jacob Elbert Wells (Superintendent), W. R. Eskew (Pastor), M. L. Eastlack, F. S. Townsend, L. E. Ressegger, Joseph VanSickle and J. H. Funk; H. W. Ware of the Church, South, spoke as a representative of the Ministerial Union.

Following is the song sung by Brother Orr just before he died:

SING ON, MY SOUL

My life flows on in endless song
Above earth's lamentations
And grace divine, each day along,
Bring's heaven's consolation.

Celestial strains my soul hath found;
I hear the music ringing;
God's great salvation doth abound—
How can I keep from singing!

'Tis of my Lord this blessed Psalm,
It brings His commendation;
Sing on, my soul, 'mid storm and calm,
It meets the situation.

All hail the day! 'Twill not be long!
I hear the music ringing!
I, too, shall join the countless throng,—
Why should I cease from singing?

Companions loud your voices raise,
And help me sing His worthy praise
Who grants His great Salvation.

O, praise the Name that bears me on.
And keeps the music ringing;
Till heaven and earth and time be gone.
O, let me still be singing!

SAMUEL TILDEN SPEARS

Born, October 7, 1877

Died, January 25, 1936

By William Burdette Mathews

Since 1919 Samuel Tilden Spears has been a useful member of the Board of Trustees of West Virginia Wesleyan College. His outstanding success in his private and professional business afforded the Board sound judgements whenever he gave expression to his opinions and convictions concerning the affairs of the college. Although not an alumnus he was intensely loyal to the institution, just as he was intensely loyal to his clients' interests even after he was smitten by his long and fatal illness.

Mr. Spears' Websterian appearance and dignified presence stamped him as a distinguished individual. In his prime he was the veritable picture of health and physical strength, hence his departure came as a shock to his host of friends and associates.

He will be remembered by them for his probity and sterling character. He was an active official member of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Elkins. In 1916 he was a delegate to the General Conference, and his thorough training as a lawyer fully equipped him for the discharge of the responsible duties of that high position.

Judge Spears is the author of a book on "Evolution, the Bible and Science Reconciled", published in 1924, and while he modestly disclaimed being either a scientist or a theologian, yet from the standpoint of a layman he wrote a thoughtful dissertation on the subject in the light the Bible and Science throw upon each other.

He not only was a patron of higher education but was himself an exemplar in the studious pursuit of philosophy, history and literature. His deep religious and spiritual nature will long endure as a potent influence for righteousness and right thinking.

DR. ROBERT ALLEN ARMSTRONG

Born September 23, 1860

Died September 15, 1936

By Frank B. Trotter

In the passing away of Dr. Robert Allen Armstrong, on Tuesday, September 15, 1936, the state lost one of its staunchest citizens, the Methodist Episcopal Church one of its most zealous laymen, and education one of its most devoted workers.

Born in Upshur County, West Virginia, September 23, 1860, Dr. Armstrong grew up on a farm on which he acquired habits of industry, thoroughness and perseverance that made him a leader as a pupil in the county schools, later in the Old French Creek Academy, then as honor student in West Virginia University when he graduated in 1886, and finally as a graduate student in Chicago University and Harvard University. In these institutions of learning he was preparing for a most useful and productive career, that of teacher, in which work in the fifty years devoted to it, he probably taught more students than any other man in the state, and lectured to more teachers both in the state and in neighboring states, than any of his colleagues. His work was always arduous and extended up to one week before he passed away. He literally died in the midst of his work, in which he left a lasting impression on those who came under his tuition. Not only in his work in the Normal School in which he worked many years, and in the University, but in one of the largest Bible classes in the state was he renowned. For many years every Sunday morning hundreds of the leading men of Morgantown came to listen to his scholarly and spiritual teaching of the Bible with which he was even more familiar than with his major subject.

As a churchman he was a leader of much more than ordinary ability and zeal. Honored by the laymen of the church in being elected to the General Conference in 1900 he served with distinction and in that session gained much inspiration for his later work in, and for the church.

Another layman writing of him paid glowing tribute in these words—"And because all through his life he assisted thousands of others in opening the great books and finding there ways of reducing the ruinously high tuition charged in the school of experience, it is pleasant and true to say that powers were of the spirit and that the influence which came from the fineness of his character and his unseen, in-dwelling power, is imperishable."

Such men are all too few, but as long as they do exist, education in their hands is safe as a builder of character and a light among men.

The student in BOSTON UNIVERSITY is more than simply "another college student".

He is a student in the largest institution of higher learning in New England, and in one of the greatest universities in the world, measured in terms of scholarly worth, serviceableness and product.

He has the opportunity of fellowship with the best of his contemporaries.

He studies under professors who have received advanced degrees from some two hundred colleges and universities in Europe and America, writers of books used in many other institutions, and distinguished scholars, more than eighty of whom are listed in "Who's Who in America".

His study at the center of Boston keeps him close to real life and gives him also the cultural values of "The Athens of America" with its rich treasures in art, its library facilities, its numerous historic and patriotic shrines, its homes and haunts of poets and philosophers.

He enters, upon graduation, into fellowship with as distinguished a group of alumni as can be found anywhere.

BOSTON UNIVERSITY has five undergraduate Colleges and six graduate Schools.
